

FACULTY OF MEDIEVAL AND MODERN LANGUAGES

THE OXFORD ITALIAN ASSOCIATION

Clara Florio Cooper Memorial Lecture

SEA-CROSSINGS, SURVIVAL, STORIES

BY PROFESSOR DAME MARINA WARNER

Taylor Institution Hall,
St. Giles, Oxford 5.00 p.m.
on Tuesday, 22nd November, 2016.
Admission is free. All welcome.

Italians have long experience of diaspora, and Italy has also been the point of arrival for many thousands of refugees in the recent and current tragic dislocations of peoples. Marina Warner will reflect on the present situation in Sicily, where she has been working with the University of Palermo on a project for encouraging story-telling in refugee communities.
