

Modern Languages Open Day
Saturday 7th May 2022
Examination Schools, High Street, OX1 4BG

PROGRAMME

10.30 Registration at Examination Schools, High Street, Oxford
Tea and coffee will be available during the arrival/registration period.

11.20 Morning talks: Modern Languages at Oxford (South & North Schools)

- Welcome and introduction
- 'Why study languages? Why Oxford? The course outlined.'
- 'Studying Literature Mini Lecture'
- 'Branching Out: New Opportunities for Language Studies at Oxford'
- 'Something New: Linguistics'
- 'View from the Ground: Life as an Undergraduate at Oxford'
- 'Life after Oxford: Careers'

Due to restricted places, only one parent/ guardian/ teacher may accompany each student for the morning session. Companions will be hosted in an overflow room (North School) with access to the main room (South School) via audio-visual facilities.

Followed by Q&A session for prospective applicants with current undergraduates

12.55 Disperse for lunch

Unfortunately, we are unable to provide lunch for attendees. You are welcome to bring your own food and drink. However, there is a strict policy that only water may be consumed in the lecture theatres and classrooms.

*****

14.00-15.00 Q&A session for parents/ guardians/ teachers (North School)

14.00-16.00 Language-specific sessions (repeated at 14.00, 14.40 and 15.20):

- French (South School)
- Spanish (Room 6)
- Russian (Room 15)
- Modern Greek* (Room 12)
- Czech* (Room 2)
- Joint Schools (Room 9)
- German (Room 1)
- Italian (Room 10)
- Portuguese (Room 7)
- Polish* (Room 8)
- Linguistics (Room 11)

**Please note, there will only be two sessions for Modern Greek, Czech, and Polish, at 14.40 and 15.20). The rooms allocated for the language-specific sessions may be subject to change on the day.*

Attendance at this Open Day is by registration only via the Faculty's website.